Expo Highlights

Industry Issues

The Thursday morning sessions begin at 9:00 a.m. with High Octane Energy Markets. The panel will discuss the energy derivatives markets as front and center to our country's focus on energy post-Hurricane Katrina.

At 10:45 a.m., join FIA president John Damgard and speakers from the Chicago Board of Trade, Chicago Mercantile Exchange, Commodity Futures Trading Commission, New York Mercantile Exchange and the Federal Reserve Board to hear an update on reauthorization and other Washington matters.

Technology

The technology sessions begin at 9:00 a.m. with FAST Protocol—FIX Adapted for Streaming, where the panel will discuss and provide a real-time demonstration of the FAST Protocol.

At 10:45 a.m., the FIA Information Technology Division presents FIX for Order Routing. Speakers will discuss the benefits and issues of standardizing exchange connectivity through the use of the FIX protocol.

Traders and Trading

At 9:00 a.m., the Structured Products Association presents Commodity-Linked Structured Products: How Wall Street's Fastest Growing Financial Product Impacts the Futures Industry. Panelists in the 10:45 a.m. session will discuss a Trader's Guide to Building an Effective Trading Strategy.

A full description of the panel sessions can be found in Outlook 06 or online at www.futuresindustry.org/expo.

NFA Brown Bag Lunch

Join NFA Communications Director Larry Dyekman and representatives from NFA's Compliance Department for a formal lunch and a discussion of recent regulatory developments, including electronic filing of financial statements, audit requirements, common audit errors and more. There is no charge for this session, but pre-registration is required.
